SAATCHI GALLERY

DUKE OF YORK'S HQ, KING'S ROAD, LONDON, SW3 4RY

ABOUT

Since 1985, Saatchi Gallery has provided an innovative platform for contemporary art exhibitions, showcasing the work of emerging artists. The Gallery has gained a strong reputation for introducing artists who would later gain worldwide recognition.

In 2008, Saatchi Gallery moved to the iconic Grade II listed building at the Duke of York's Headquarters in Chelsea, London. In 2019, the Gallery became a registered charity and began a new chapter in its history.

Since 2008, the Gallery has welcomed over 10 million visitors, and we are proud to offer free entry to thousands of school, university & community groups throughout the year.

Saatchi Gallery has a prominent digital presence, with an audience of over 6 million across social media. 90% of our visitors are of ABC1 demographic, and primarily in the age bracket of 18-34.

THE GALLERIES

From fashion shows to sell-out exhibitions, art fairs and brand activations, Saatchi Gallery has become an iconic destination for both local and international visitors.

The Saatchi Gallery team offer support at each stage of your project, from planning and execution through to desinstallation.

Our Galleries offer well-proportioned, minimalist and blank canvas spaces, allowing for creative briefs to be fulfilled, fairs to be built from scratch, and an opportunity to pay homage to your brand.

Spanning three floors, all 13 galleries include:

- Individual spaces of approximately. 185m²
- High ceilings ranging from 3.2m to 7.2m
- Fully dimmable barrisol lighting, simulating natural daylight
- Goods lift holding 4200kg and height of 3.7m
- Three-phase power
- High speed internet
- Full disabled access across all floors
